Varsity Football . . .

Providing Thrills and Heartbreak

Junior stand-out, Richard C. Stuker, got the nod for an all-conference nomination. Senior star, Jeff Harshman, received an honorable mention in the all-conference ratings. Hard working senior, Fred Simpson, was elected captain of the 1971 Beeters.

Representing the CHS in Varsity Football in 1971 were: ROW ONE: Mike Taylor, Mgr.; Keith Conroy, Douglas Schnittgen, Larry Larson, Gerald Johnson, Alan Hamilton, Ernest Johnson, James Murdy, Dennis Lott, Mgr. ROW TWO: Coach Kimball, Tony Peterschick, Dale Hofeldt, Richard Varner, Paul Burkhardtmeier, Winston Churchill, Ron Reid, Coach Schye. ROW THREE: William Mangold, Grant Willman, Scott Billmayer, Dan Jamieson, Terry LaTray, Chris Thomas, Jon Grubb. ROW FOUR: Richard C. Stuker, Richard L. Stuker, Chauncey Austad, Marlin LaTray, Mickey Mellett, Charles Smith. ROW FIVE: Steve Harvey, Randy Roth, Fred Simpson, Jeff Harshman, Bill Ochmcke, Claude Hamilton.

In the fall of '71 the varsity team got rolling with two big wins over Harlem and Choteau. Then they dropped a couple to superior teams from Fort Benton and Cut Bank, but came back to thrill their homecoming fans with a decisive win over the Browning Indians. Shelby proved too tough, but the Beeters refused to give in. The next weekend was the big heartbreaker - CHS had a win cinched in their contest with traditional rival, Malta, only to give it away in the closing minutes. The season ended on a sour note with the Beeters losing to the mighty Conrad Cowboys.

Homecoming . . .

High-Lighting Fall's Activities

On September 30 and October 1, Homecoming activities started with a snap, crackle, and pop at Thursday night's bonfire and pep rally. A street dance followed at Buttrey's parking lot.

On Friday things began with the crowning of the royalty. Chosen king was Richard Stuker and chosen queen was Vicki Felton. Attendants were Patti Conroy, Carol Leeds, Steve Harvey, and Bill Oehmcke. Kangaroo Court was next, followed by the parade with all float entries.

During half-time of the game, in which the Beeters were victorious over the Browning Indians, the juniors were awarded first place for their float. Following the game, Student Council sponsored the homecoming dance.

J.V. Football . . . Posting an Excellent Record

Frosh Football . . . Building for the Future

Scheduling conflicts and the weather limited the freshman football schedule to three games in the 1971 season. There were problems with coordination and organization. The squad lost two, won one.

Fun Night would be no fun without popcorn. The FHA girls provided this necessity.

Earning Money to Support Activities Fun Night . . .

Posing with 1971 queen Patti Harshman were her attendants Sandra Felton, Michelle McDowell, and Janet Guertzgen, along with 1970 queen Sandi Lenhardt.

A number of games of skill and chance were provided for the enjoyment of the patrons. Here, two members of annual staff willingly took the player's money.

Tony Seamons entertained Queen Patti and her court with the vocal solo, "I Can't Help Falling In Love With You."

The Pep Club "Fish Pond" was, as usual, the most popular booth for the small fry.

Mr. Murphy and other members of the faculty and administration served as genial targets on the new FFA Dunking Stand.

Cast and stage crew for the Junior Class Play included: SEATED: Anita Holman, Bonnie Erickson, Brenda Butcher, Susan Ramberg, Linda Sparks, David Stroud, Chris Thomas, Tony Seamons. STANDING: Anita Nemetz, Lonnie Bahr, Laurie Sheets, Sonya Johnson, Rod Olson, Grant Willman, Mr. Hewitt, Marshall McCartney, Peggy Munson, Patsy Kimball, Robert Herdegan, Marilyn Rusch.

Junior Play . . .

Spoofig the Generation Gap

The Junior Play, "The Haircut," was about Mackey who was always getting into it with Mr. Pockles about his hair.

Pockles got involved with a single woman teacher. She wanted to marry him, but there was one complication - Pockles was already married!

This outside activity did nothing to increase Pockles' patience in dealing with Mackey. He finally got tired of telling Mackey to get his hair cut, so he did the job himself.

Toy Drive . . . Spreading Christmas Joy

On December 22, members of the Student Council accompanied Santa Claus, better known as Dennis Wisch, in his travels to Hays and Lodge Pole. A week previous to this, toys were collected to give the children eagerly awaiting him at the two stops. Everyone had a great time, and the Student Council hopes to continue this practice in the future.

Cheerleaders . . .

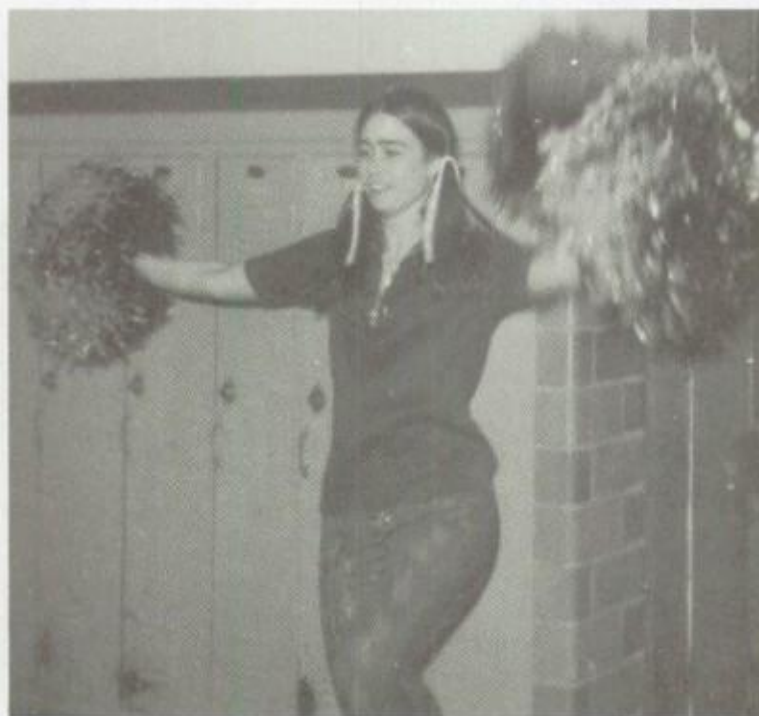

Exhorting the Team to Win

Leading a chant at a pep assembly are varsity cheerleaders Peggy Butler, Marilyn Rusch, Marcia Rusch, and Janet Guertzgen.

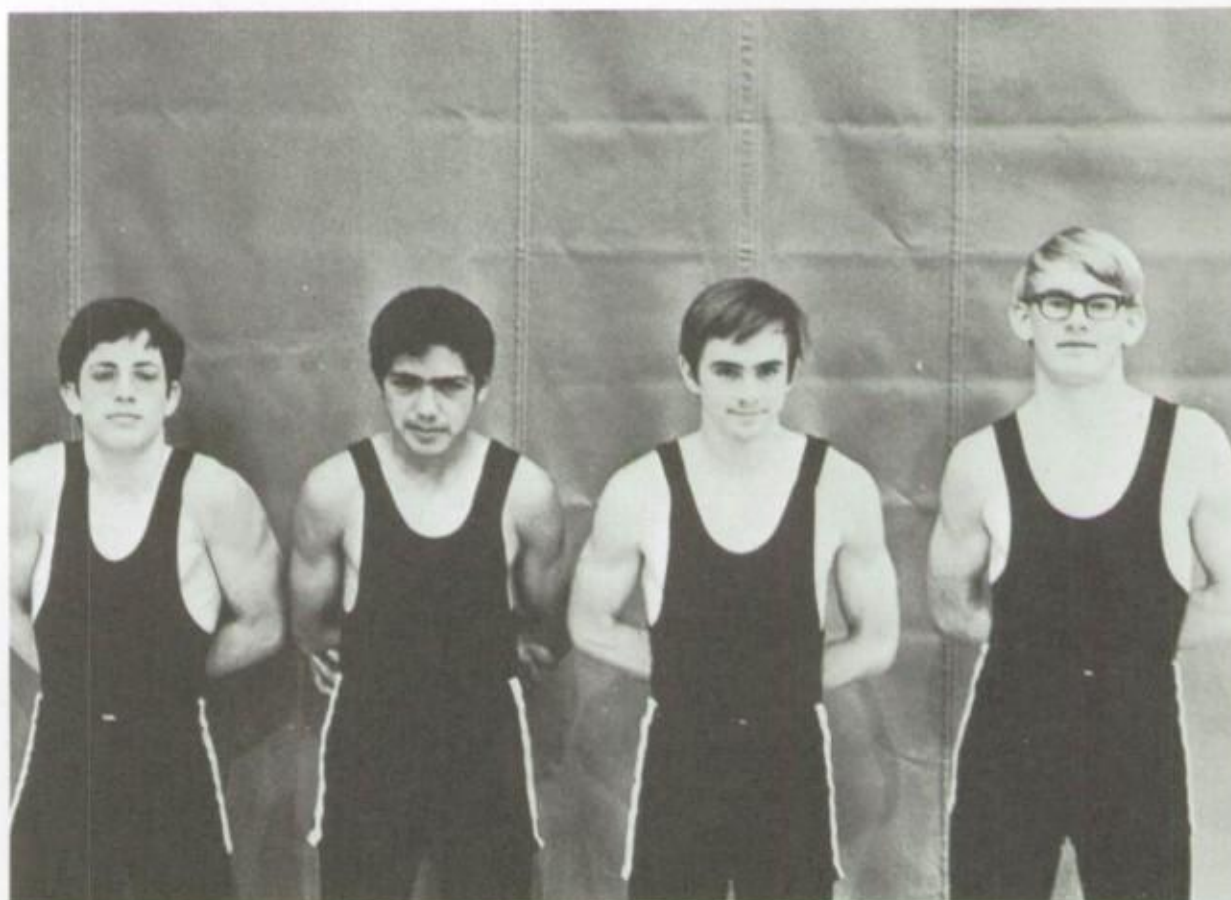

Wrestling cheerleaders, Lou Ann Bryson, Rae Ann Renne, and Mary Reene, lead the fans in cheering an exciting match.

Sparking the junior varsity teams were Leanne Taylor, Beth Harbolt, Ann McClintock, and Linda Stephens.

In action featuring some of the wrestlers, one has:
 RIGHT: Senior star, Richard Stuker finds himself in a very common predicament, receiving congratulations from a cheerleader for placing third. Richard placed third in Northern Division and State Class B-C competition in the 185 lb. class. BELOW: Up-and-coming sophomore, Joe Raty, gets a working over, but not for long; Joe placed second in the 98 lb. class in the division. BELOW OPPOSITE: Another sophomore who will be throwing his 119 lbs. around the Northern Division for a couple more years is Tony Peterschick; Tony was second at divisional also.

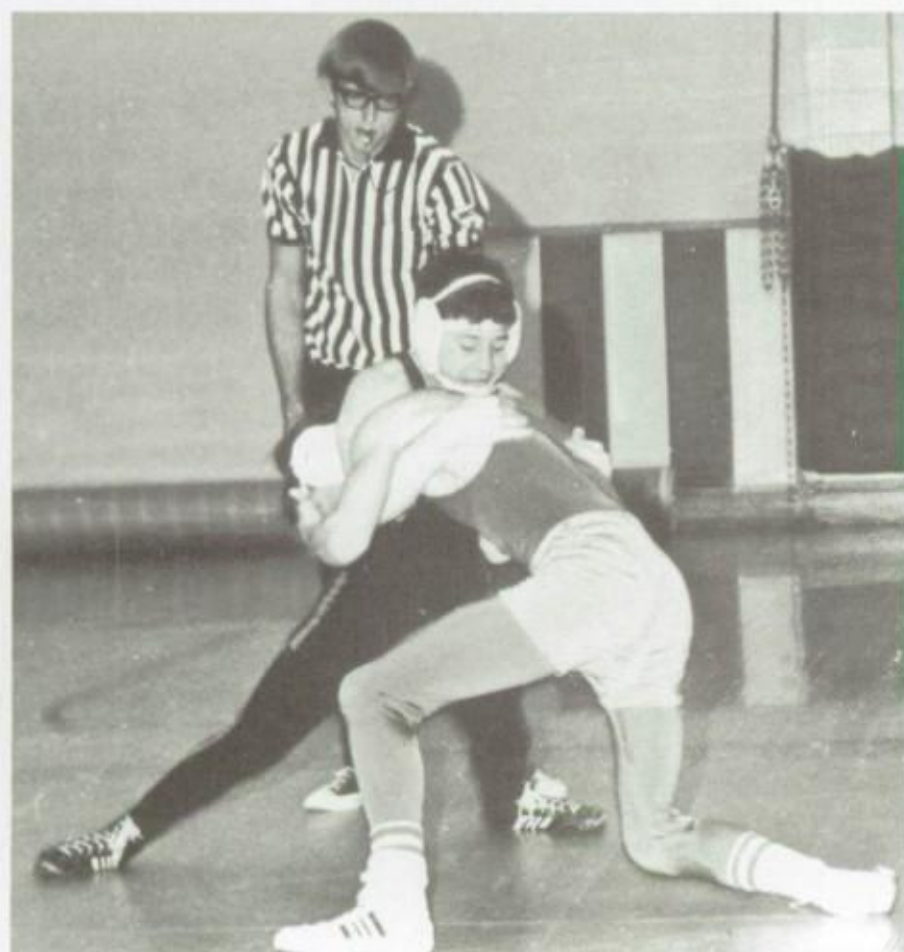

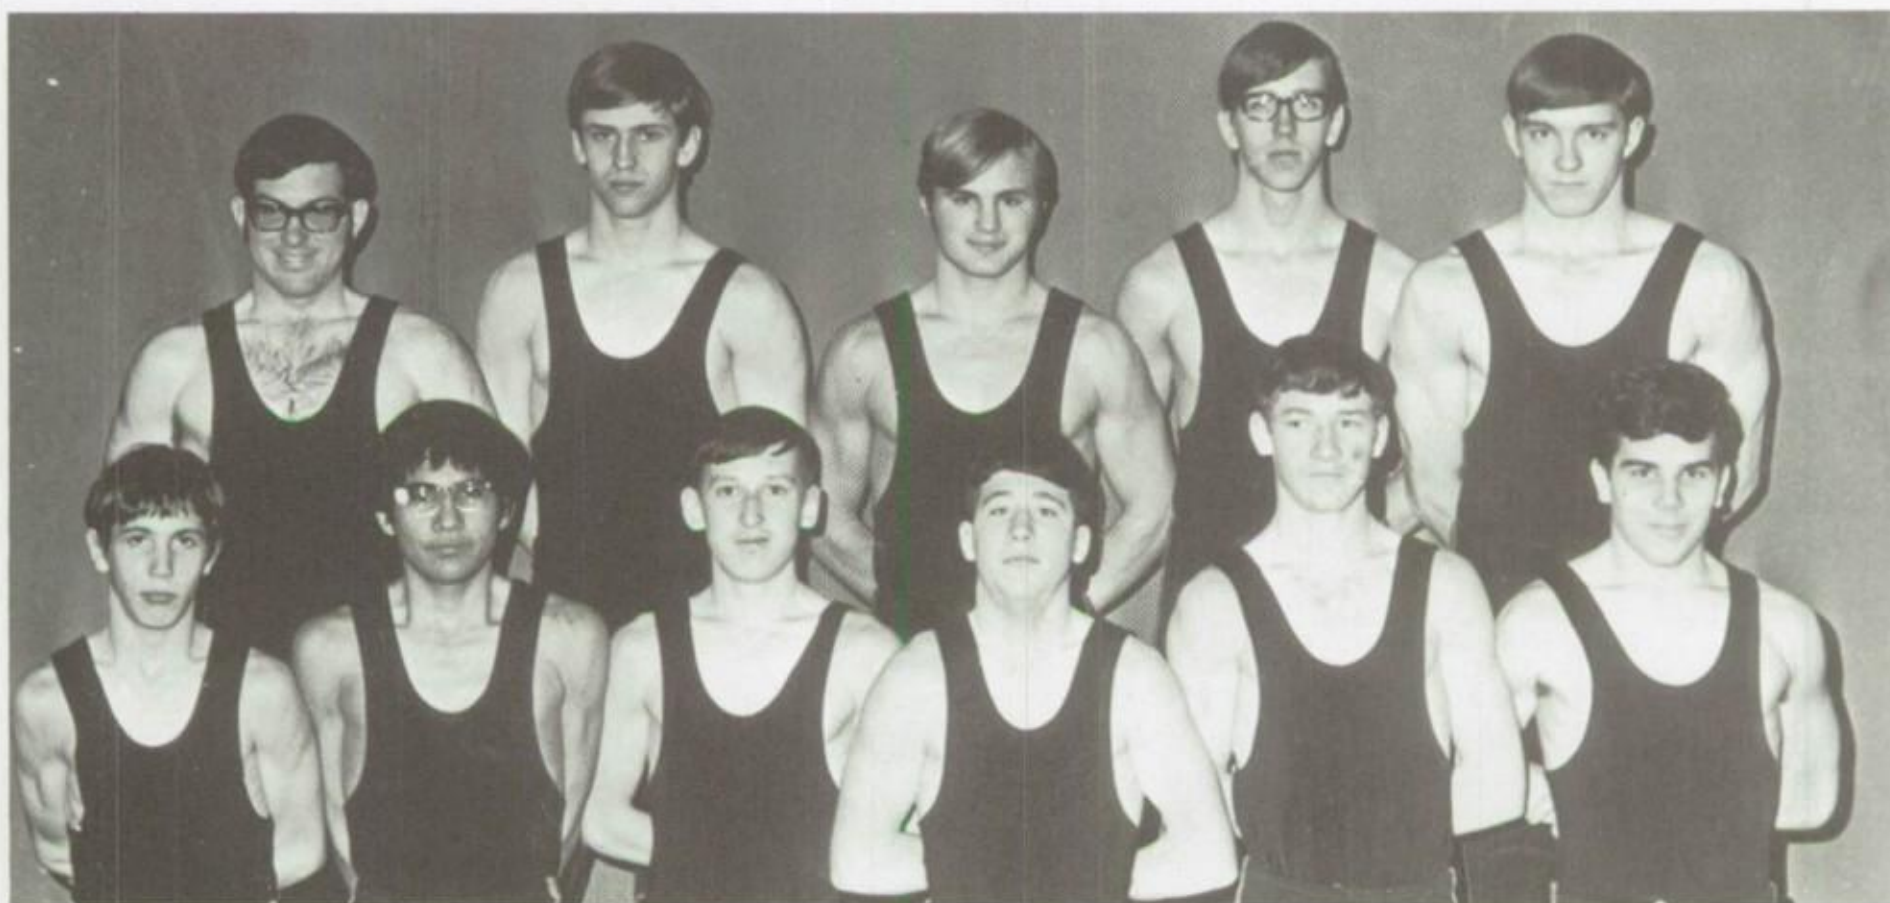

Wrestling Junior Varsity were: Lee Morgan, Manuel Moreno, Alan Knettel, and John Ross.

Wrestlers . . .

Sending Three to State

Having to forfeit one or more weight classes every match really hurt the CHS wrestlers in the '71-'72 season. However, some fine performances were turned in by individual wrestlers.

		Won	Lost	Draw

Speech Club . . . Hosting a Meet

A big event in the lives of Speech Club members this year was the Chinook Invitational Speech Meet held February 19. In addition to participating in competition, the students had to arrange for timers for all events (below) and sign up adult judges. (Left) Leta Campbell receives a certificate for making finals at the CHS meet.

Senior Play . . . Characterizing School Stereotypes

The senior class presented the play, LOCK, STOCK, AND LIPSTICK. The play took place in the guidance office of Pembroke High School. The guidance counselor, played by Jim Murdy, was somewhat set in his ways and was against any changes in his department.

David Stroud did an excellent job in portraying the custodian, otherwise known as the idiot, who did counseling on the side. Carol Leeds also did a fine job in the role of Miss Prather, known as Miss Frankenstein by the students, the math teacher who refused to teach discipline problems. One of her problems was Larry Donnely, played by Fred Simpson. He came under suspicion when the annual staff money disappeared. Leta Campbell, portraying the girls' counselor, supported his innocence.

Members of the cast of LOCK, STOCK, AND LIPSTICK were: Fred Simpson, Lance Elias, Carol Leeds, David Stroud, Leta Campbell, Jim Murdy, Peggy Williamson, Sonya Johnson, Vicki Felton, Lora Young, Debbie Nicholson.

Girls' Track . . . Running Some Good Races

Penny Miller with her efforts in long jump and the 100 yard dash was the big name in girls' track. Penny earned the right to represent CHS at state in these events. Other individuals who placed at district, but not in divisional, were Patsy Kimball in 220 and Marcia Rusch in hurdles.

Also placing at district, and consequently entered at divisional was the relay team - Patsy Kimball, Penny Miller, Joni Barber, and Sheri Conner. These girls competed in both the 440 and 880 medley events.

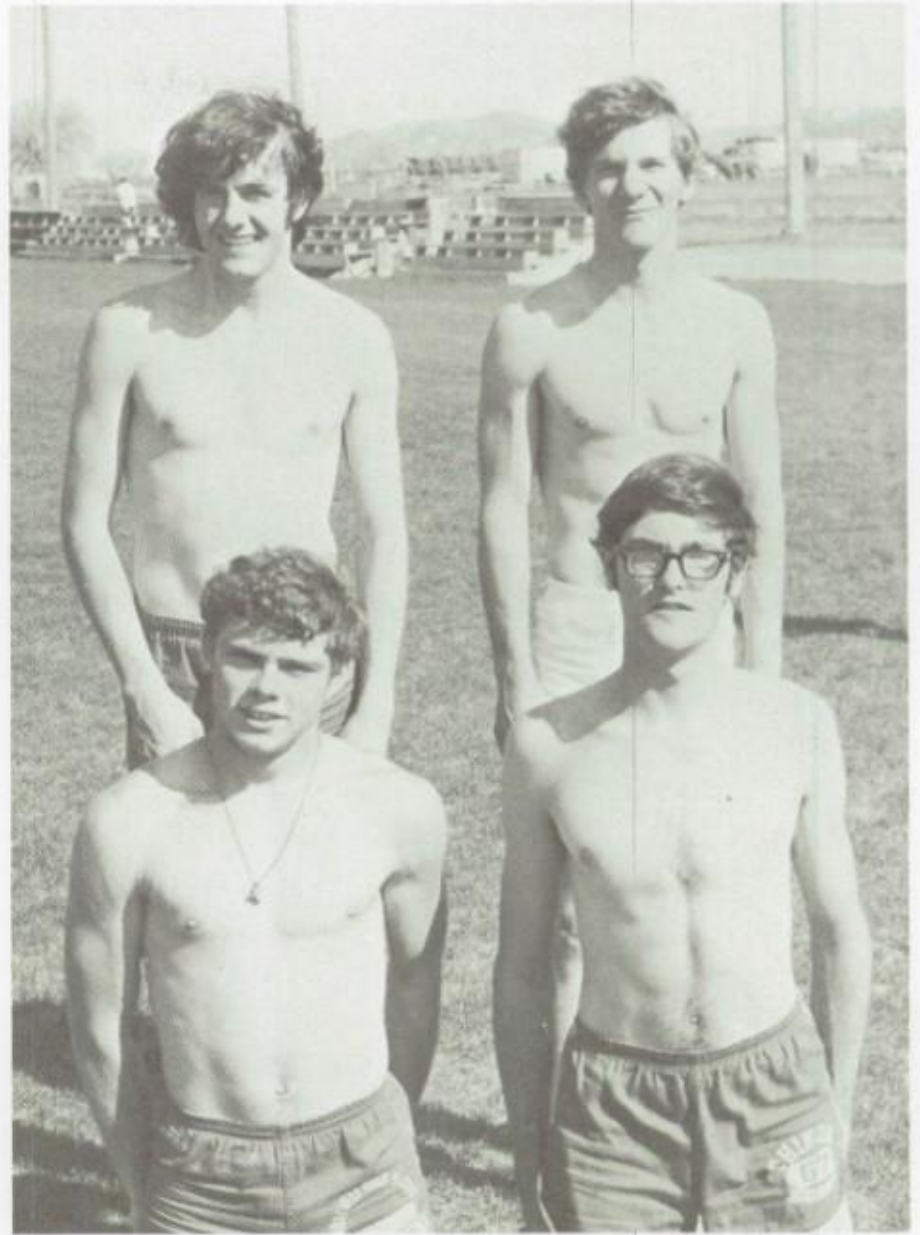

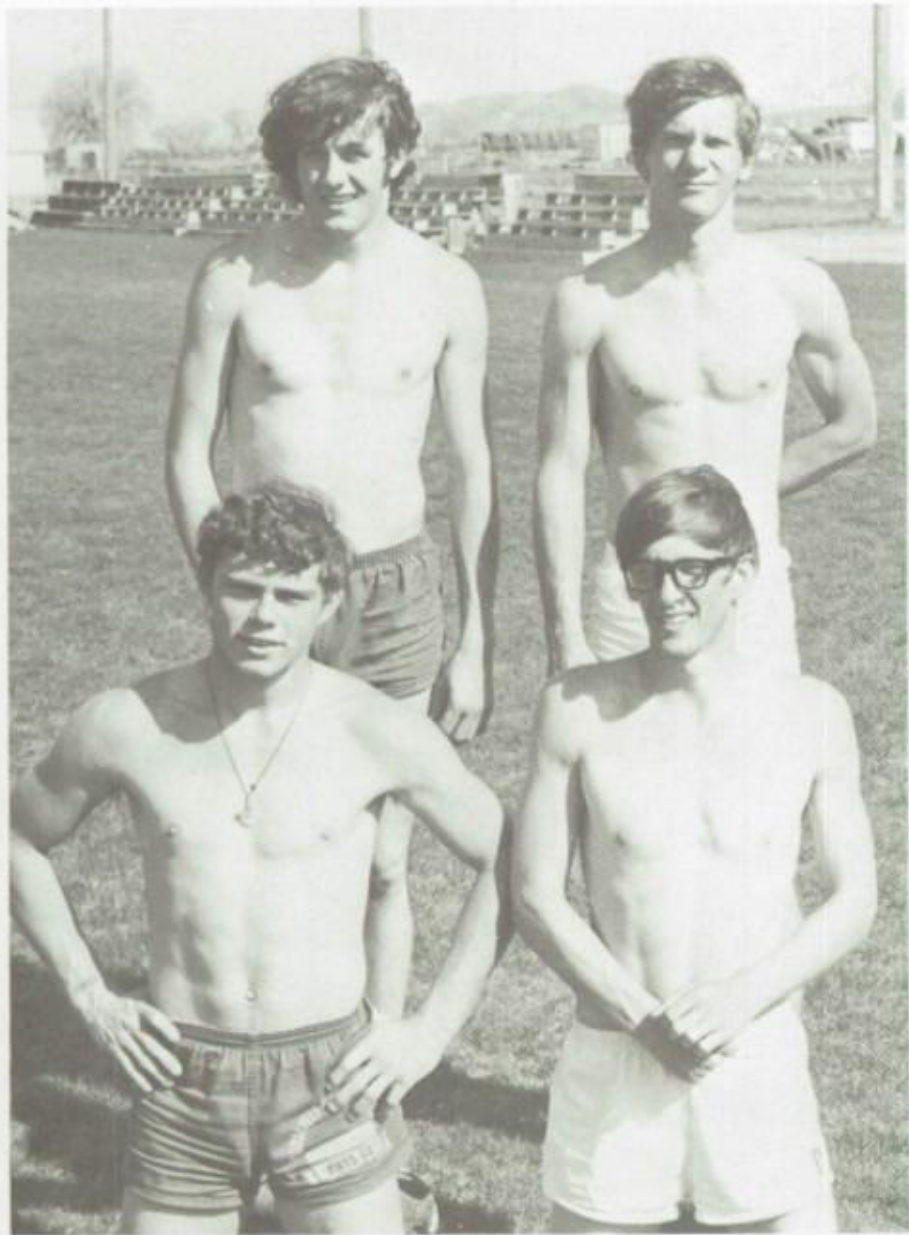

Paced by senior star, Jeff Harshman, who set a new record in high hurdles at the Northern Divisional meet in Great Falls, the CHS thinclads had a fine season.

The team was second in the district meet. Placing at district were: Jeff Harshman, high and low hurdles; Bob Herdegen, shotput; Marlin LaTray, mile and two mile; Dan Jamieson, 100, 220, and 440; Richard Stuker, 100 and 220; Keith Conroy, high jump; Chuck Smith, high jump.

In addition to these fine individual efforts, the 880 relay team - Richard Stuker, Jerry Johnson, Jeff Harshman, and Dan Jamieson - and the mile relay team - Richard Stuker, Bill MacLean, Jeff Harshman, and Dan Jamieson - Posted good season records.

Representing CHS in the state meet were: Jeff Harshman, low hurdles and high hurdles; Dan Jamieson, 100 and 220; Richard Stuker, 220; and the 880 relay team.

Varsity Track . . . Setting a Division Record

Prom . . .
Featuring Rock
and South*

"A Day in the Old South with the Orange Sunshine band." This phrase pretty much sums up the junior-senior prom of 1972.

For the juniors, the event got rolling on April 17 when they got down to the business of converting the Armory to a gracious Southern plantation. The seniors got into the act on Friday when they joined the juniors for a pizza feed.

Saturday, both classes dressed in formal best for the traditional prom. Everyone got a big surprise when the first bars of the grand march blasted through the archway - Orange Sunshine turned out to be a hard rock group! After recovering from the initial shock, prom goes, who had elected Tony Seamons king and Barbara Miller queen, relaxed and enjoyed themselves until the stroke of 12 when the sponsors closed things down.

Graduation . . . Observing Formalities in the Gym

Commencement exercises were, as is custom, a formal ritual of music and speeches. Good words came from Rev. Philip Shull, Salutatorian Jeff Harshman, Rev. Peter Pollock, Valedictorian Ann Burkhartsmeier, main speaker Jack Rehberg, and Rev. Kenneth Olson. Musical sounds were courtesy of Sheri Conner and Candy Herda for the processional, The Chamber Choir, and the High School Senior Ensemble. But the high point of the evening came as board members, Ron Swenson, Don Harshman, and Warren Ross, presented each of the 66 graduates with his long-awaited diploma.

STANDING ON FLOOR: Editor Peggy Williamson, Elaine Balazic, Assistant Editor Anita Nemetz, Karla Holman, Editor Gwen Sharples. Student Council . . . Evaluating Activities Program

The biggest task undertaken by Student Council was to evaluate the entire program of student activities for the Northwest Accrediting that took place in CHS in April. Other S.C. projects included homecoming and a Christmas toy drive. Officers were Laurie Doughten, secretary-treasurer; Charles Molyneaux, president, and Richard Varner, vice-president.

Down the Halls . . . Staff

Wrestling With Budget and Policy

Members of the school board were (STANDING) Robert Duawalder, Russell Skones, Ernie Larson, Warren Ross, (SEATED) James Nemetz. Mitzi Bruss was clerk, and Ronald Swenson was chairman. Members Ron Lux and Don Harshman are not pictured.

Teaching . . .

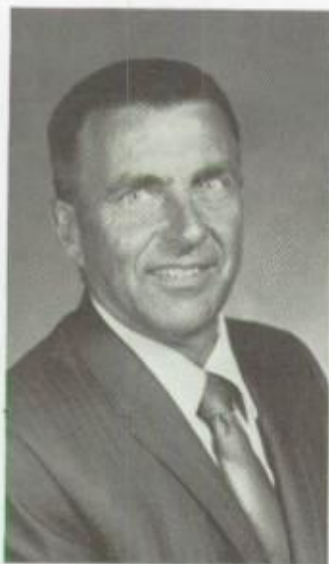

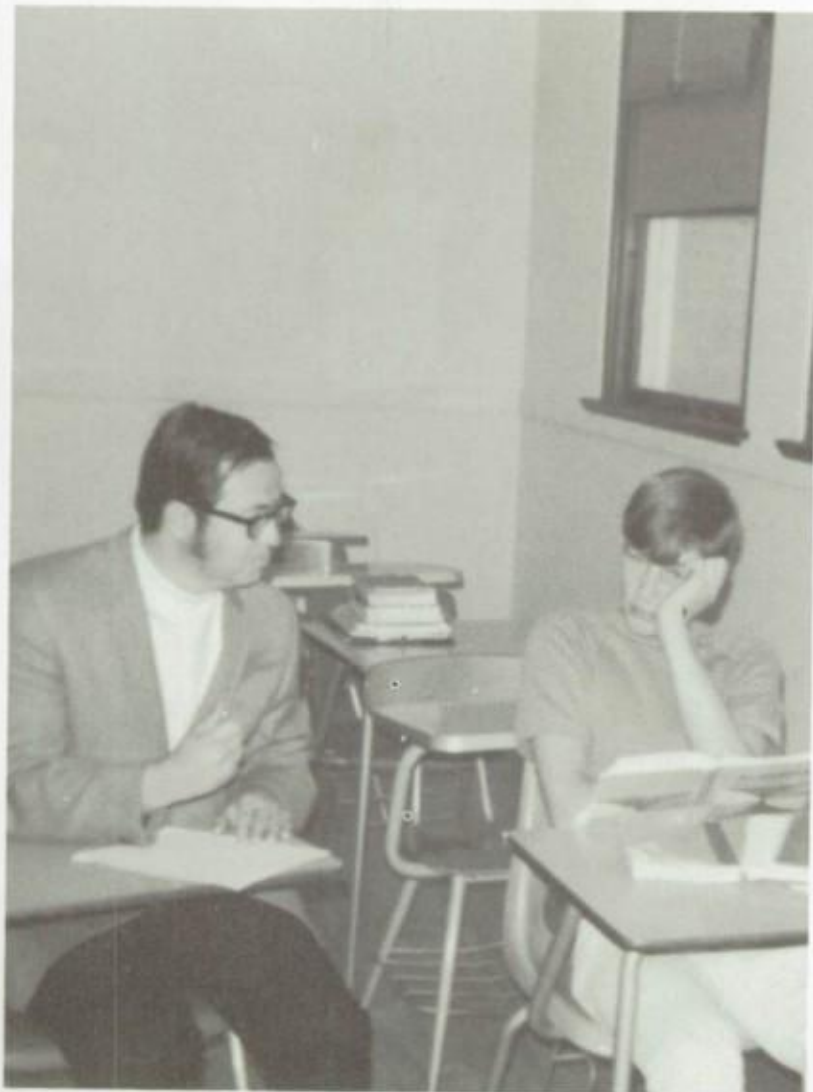

Teacher Laubach seemed to enjoy this math lesson a lot more than did student, Chuck Smith. Douglas Laubach taught math and physics.

CHS's resident referee was Herb Kimball, biology and phy. ed. instructor.

Ray Reid taught General Math I. Darrell McCracken worked in the areas of math and shop. Al Hartwig kept busy from early morn to late at night listening to the tootling of his band students.

Karen Rambo guided instruction in art, a first for CHS.

Brenda Schye was hired to assist with the girls in the guidance area and to instruct social psychology. Joe Whisonant, in addition to keeping tabs on all the students as head guidance counsellor, taught psychology and freshman orientation.

Sometimes Policing . . .

Miss Swant takes a lunch break with non-fattening Flair. Gail Swant taught physical sciences.

David Jensen taught in the business department along with JoAnne Erickson. Mrs. Erickson also taught a lit. class.

Underclass English was Barbara Pippin's assignment while Joan Murphy managed home-economics. Charles Hewitt directed activities in speech and drama. Dennis Day drew upperclassmen English.

Assisting in boys' phy. ed. was Randy Morrison.

To Brendon Murphy went the thrill of riding with Chinook's future drivers as they mastered forward and reverse.

Although she was usually known as the lady with all the answers, librarian Ellen Svendsen looks perplexed with Mickey Mellett's latest suggestion.

The Faculty

Choral director, Steward Hanson, cures his pre-concert butterflies with last minute line-up changes. Mr. Hanson also taught English.

Girls' phy. ed. instructor, Judy Bricker, enjoys a lively game of volleyball in one of her classes. Mrs. Bricker also revived CHS's French program.

Dorothy Lich instructed German and government while Faye Jacobson monitored study halls. Vern Luft directed the vo-ag department and Pamela Besche worked on speech therapy.

"Watch out for a pass!" is Ted Schye's advice to the football team. Mr. Schye taught social studies.

Non-Professional Staff . . .

Collecting Loose Ends

In every school there must be someone to take care of millions of details so that teachers have time for teaching and students have time for learning. At CHS, these chores are handled admirably by our non-professional staff. LEFT: Custodian Ted Simpson struggles with some heavy freight. UPPER RIGHT:

Having gotten out morning announcements, secretaries Katherine Flatness and Donna Mangold pause for the cameraman. LOWER RIGHT: Custodians Ruth Wilson and Pearl Hamilton take a break from straightening up desks at the end of a typical school day.
